International Real Estate For Local Markets

analyzes the international real estate business environment, including capital flow, currencies, government regulations and cultures. Macaluso shares the practical aspects of international brokerage, networking, marketing and selling. Whether or not you plan to earn a Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS) designation, this course is ideal if you encounter opportunities to participate in an international transaction; ie: assisting an immigrant, foreign investor, or helping a U.S. resident purchase property abroad.

This introductory course is a pre-requisite to all other Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS) courses.
