

NORTHEAST FLORIDA ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS

MEDIATION/ARBITRATION PROCESS

The Northeast Florida Association of REALTORS® ("NEFAR"), a professional trade association, offers its members and the public several dispute resolution options, regarding disagreements over the details of a real estate transaction. These services are: 1) utilizing our Ombudsman service; 2) filing an Ethics Complaint against a REALTOR®, for a possible violation of the Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS and/or other membership duty; and/or, 3) filing a request for arbitration with a REALTOR®, for a commission/compensation dispute.

* * * * *

You, the potential complainant, may first like to take advantage of our OMBUDSMAN SERVICE:

Our trained Ombudsmen will: listen to your concerns; ascertain your desired outcome; explain possible avenues that might resolve the issue or reach the desired outcome; answer general questions and/or procedural questions; contact the REALTOR/potential respondent to explain your concerns and desired outcome; tries to bring resolution; reports back to you; and, explains your rights after the completion of the Ombudsman process.

To request an Ombudsman's service, please complete the Ombudsman Request form and submit it as directed at the bottom of the form.

The following is a brief overview of the MEDIATION/ARBITRATION PROCESS:

Mediation is a voluntary process that is offered prior to, or in lieu of, a more formal arbitration, by which REALTORS® who are disputing a claim to a real estate commission or compensation, or REALTORS® and their clients or customers who have a dispute arising out of an agency relationship, can meet, and with the assistance of a Mediation Officer, attempt to resolve their differences and find an amicable resolution of their disagreement.

The parties to a mediation, as it is a voluntary submission, may withdraw from the process at any point prior to reaching an agreement. Any offers of settlement that were not accepted, or any suggested resolution proposed by the Mediation Officer that was not accepted, will not be introduced as evidence nor considered in any manner should the matter require arbitration by the Association's Professional Standards Committee. However, if the parties agree to a settlement of the dispute, and the settlement has been reduced to writing and has been signed by all of the parties, the matter is deemed resolved and cannot be the subject...of...a...subsequent.....

arbitration hearing. In the event either of the parties later fails to abide by the terms of the settlement, the matter may not be arbitrated, but should be judicially enforced.

Arbitration is a more formal process by which REALTORS® who are disputing a claim to a real estate commission or compensation, or REALTORS® and their clients or customers who have a dispute arising out of an agency relationship, may come to the Association and request an impartial panel of the Professional Standards Committee to hear the evidence and render a decision on who is entitled to the commission/compensation on the basis of evidence and testimony presented at an Arbitration Hearing. A Request and Agreement to Arbitrate ("Request") must be filed within one hundred eighty (180) after the closing of the transaction, if any, or within one hundred eighty (180) days after the facts constituting the arbitrable matter could have been known in the exercise of reasonable diligence, whichever is later.

The advantages of this system are many: it is inexpensive (a $500 filing deposit is required from each party), private, and it is a judgement by one's peers. If you are a member of the Association, you will be required to provide an original and twenty (20) copies of the Request to arbitrate package (which consists of the organized and collated supporting documentation with the Request and Agreement to Arbitrate form attached as the cover page, along with your $500 filing deposit), or copies will be run for you and you will be billed at .05¢ a page.

When the Association receives a Request to arbitrate, the opportunity to mediate is offered. If either party declines or the mediation is unsuccessful, the Request is reviewed by the NEFAR Grievance Committee to determine if the matter is properly arbitrable by NEFAR. If so, a copy of the Request will be provided to the Respondent and the parties will once again be offered an opportunity to mediate or the Respondent can file their Response and Agreement to Arbitrate ("Response"), along with their $500 filing deposit, within fifteen (15) days, so the matter can be scheduled for arbitration before an arbitration hearing panel of the Professional Standards Committee.

There is no appeal to an arbitration decision, except for denial of due process.

Ombudsmen, Mediation Officers, and members of hearing, arbitration, and appeal panels are chosen for their judicious temperament and expertise in the real estate profession.

In the event I do not comply with the arbitration award and it is necessary for any party to this arbitration to obtain judicial confirmation and enforcement of the arbitration award against me, I agree to pay the party obtaining such confirmation the costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in obtaining such confirmation and enforcement.

Any Agreement signed by the parties, pursuant to the mediation conference, shall be binding.

As a party to the mediation process I understand and agree as follows:

Parties to mediation may withdraw from the process at any point prior to reaching an agreement. Parties to mediation that do not reach an agreement shall be free to pursue arbitration of the dispute in accordance with the guidelines set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®. The Parties acknowledge that the mediator is not providing legal representation, legal advice, or legal services, and that the parties are advised of their right to be represented by counsel at the mediation and also of their right to obtain independent legal advice (if counsel are not at the mediation) before signing any final settlement agreement.

Any offers of settlement that were not accepted or any suggested resolution proposed by the Mediation Officer that was not accepted will not be introduced as evidence nor considered in any manner should the matter require arbitration by the Board's Professional Standards committee. However, if the parties agree to a settlement of the dispute, and the settlement is reduced to writing and has been signed by all of the parties, the matter shall be considered resolved, and shall not be the subject of a subsequent arbitration hearing. In the event that either of the parties fails to abide by the terms of the settlement, the matter may not be arbitrated; instead, the other party should be encouraged to have the settlement agreement judicially enforced by a court of competent jurisdiction.

No aspect of this mediation conference shall be relied upon or introduced as evidence in any ethics, arbitration, judicial, or other proceeding, including, but not limited to: views expressed or suggestions made by a party with respect to a possible settlement of the dispute; admissions made in the course of the mediation; proposals made or views expressed by the Mediator or the response of any party thereto. No privilege shall be affected by disclosures made in the course of mediation. Disclosure of any records, reports or other documents received or prepared by the Board or Mediation Officer shall not be compelled. Neither the Board or the Mediation Officer shall be compelled to disclose or to testify in any proceeding as to information disclosed or representations made in the course of the mediation or communication to the Mediator in confidence. Neither the mediation Officer, the Northeast Florida Association of REALTORS®, the Florida Association of REALTORS®, nor the National Association of REALTORS®, or any of its Member Boards shall be deemed "necessary parties" in any judicial proceedings relating to mediation under this Agreement. The parties acknowledge that the mediation proceedings will not be tape recorded and that weapons of any type are prohibited.

Are the circumstances giving rise to this request for Mediation the subject of civil or criminal litigation or in any proceeding before the state real estate licensing authority or any other state or federal regulatory or administrative agency? Yes No

By my signature on this Agreement to Mediate, I acknowledge my rights and agree to the terms of the mediation procedures as stated above. I hereby affirm that I have the authority to enter into and sign a binding written agreement to settle this dispute.
