Monthly Indicators

June 2010

Think global, act local. With European debt crises, oil spills and disappointing job growth figures putting stress on the stock market, the local housing market could have fared much worse during June.

Buyers were anything but shy, as Pending Sales posted a considerable 20.0 percent increase to 1,663 over last June. Sellers were slightly less confident since New Listings increased only 3.4 percent to 2,968 over last year.

Consequently, inventory levels decreased 6.8 percent to 15,213 compared to last year. The June Median Sales Price of $143,090 was a 10.6 percent decrease from last year. Prices occasionally lag in response time to current market dynamics and also reflect the mix of homes selling.

Negotiations inched back toward the sellers favor by 2.7 percent to arrive at 89.6 percent of their original list price. Market times decreased 10.1 percent to 102 days; while months supply decreased a colossal 30.4 percent to 10.6 months.

Expect closings to receive a boost as Congress recently extended the closing date to September 30 for tax credit buyers, and expect the market to stay flat or post minor improvements over the near term.
